

HEDGEHOG CLASS HOME LEARNING

Thursday 7th May 2020

Tomorrow is a very special day. Friday 8th May 2020 is a Bank Holiday and it is the 75th anniversary of VE Day.

All the activities today are based around this special day. If you are able to access Twinkl there is a powerpoint called EYFS All about VE Day (4-5) that you might like to look at. I have attached copies below but the pictures are rather small - sorry!

Things to think about:

- Which country do we live in?
- What does the Union Flag look like?
- Why might people fight? What might they use to fight? (weapons, planes etc)
- What might happen if people fight?
- How do you think people felt during the war?
- How do you think the people felt when Winston Churchill announced the war was over?
- Why do you think people wanted to celebrate?
- How do we celebrate something special?
We could have a PARTY!!!

Your challenge - should you wish to accept - is to plan and prepare for a party tomorrow!

There are some resources below and I am sure many more online but some ideas to get you started ...

1. What food might you have at a party? If you were going to have a picnic what could you have? You could ask your family what their favourite sandwiches are? How will you record what they said? Will you write a list or draw a picture of it? What is their favourite cake?
2. Making food to eat at a party - could you help to make sandwiches, cakes, jelly, decorate biscuits etc?
3. Make some bunting to put up or some flags?
4. Make a party hat for everyone - how will you measure their heads to make sure they fit?
5. Make a drink for everyone - how much squash will you have to make so everyone in your house can have a cup?
6. What games will you play?

I hope you have a fabulous and fantastic fun packed
Friday!

Second World War

As well as soldiers going to fight, some children had to move out of big cities to stay safe and food was rationed to make sure that everyone had enough to eat.

How do you think people felt during the war?

8th May 1945

On the 8th May 1945, Winston Churchill, the Prime Minister announced to the UK that the war was over.

Winston Churchill announcing the war is over on the radio.

VE Day Celebrations

The 8th May 1945 became known as Victory in Europe Day, or VE Day for short.

People went out in their streets to have a party and celebrated the war being over. They waved Union Jacks, put up bunting, danced and shared food with each other.

Why do you think people wanted to celebrate?
What can you see in the pictures?

People celebrate VE Day in lots of different ways, such as having a picnic in their garden and singing songs to remember that important day in 1945.

Will you be doing anything to celebrate VE Day?
